Robison, Curphey & O'Connell expands in Findlay and relocates office

TOLEDO, OHIO – Robison, Curphey & O'Connell is pleased to announce that effective January 1, 2011 Robert F. Sprague, Douglas W. Huffman and Matthew L. Klein (formerly with the law firm of Sprague, Huffman & Klein) have joined the firm as partners and the firm's Findlay office has been relocated to:

220 West Sandusky Street
Findlay, OH 45840
419-423-4321
419-423-8484 Fax

“Successful mergers are built upon cultural fit, the integrity of the lawyers, and the energy behind their combined vision; this merger clearly has all three,” said James Brazeau, managing partner of the firm. Bob Sprague, said “our clients will still be dealing day to day with the same attorneys and staff, but will benefit from our relationship with Robison, Curphey & O'Connell immediately because we are able to provide additional areas of expertise. It is a unity of focus and vision to serve our clients in the way they have come to expect and deserve. In a fundamental sense, we are formalizing a relationship with colleagues we have known and had confidence in for a long time.”

Robison, Curphey & O'Connell is a regional law firm which has been providing legal counsel to individuals and businesses for more than a century. With an experienced staff of professionals, the firm is committed to providing service to its clients that exceeds expectations. The firm's practice and industry groups include Agribusiness, Banking & Finance, Business & Corporate, Employment & Benefits, Estate Planning, Probate & Tax, Healthcare, Insurance, Litigation, Professional Liability, Real Estate & Construction, Transportation, and Workers' Compensation.
