Mark C. Abramson appointed to serve on State Bar committee

MONROE, MI – Robison, Curphey & O'Connell, is pleased to announce that Mark C. Abramson has been appointed to the State Bar of Michigan Standing Committee on Character and Fitness as an Advisor member.

In addition to completing law school and passing the Michigan Bar Examination, those who wish to practice law in Michigan must prove to the satisfaction of the State Board of Law Examiners that she or he possesses “good moral character” and otherwise possesses the requisite character and fitness to practice law. Under the Supreme Court Rules Concerning State Bar of Michigan, investigation of character and fitness is initially the responsibility of the State Bar of Michigan Standing Committee on Character and Fitness, which forwards its recommendation to the State Board of Law Examiners after investigation.

Mark C. Abramson is a partner of the firm and a member of the wealth preservation and labor, employment and benefits groups. He has over 30 years experience in dealing with employment law, Employee Retirement Income Security Act (ERISA), employee benefits, and wealth preservation. He is admitted to practice law in Michigan, Ohio and the District of Columbia, and has argued cases in both the United States District Courts and the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. He currently serves as a member of the Monroe County Chamber of Commerce, Board of Directors.
