Constance A. Snyder joins Robison, Curphey & O'Connell

TOLEDO, OHIO – Robison, Curphey & O'Connell (RC&O), a law firm based in Toledo with offices in Findlay, Waterville and Adrian, Michigan, is pleased to announce that Constance A. Snyder joined the firm as of counsel.

Ms. Snyder was admitted to the Ohio Bar in 1982. She has extensive experience in the representation of employers in employment and labor matters, including negotiation of collective bargaining agreements, grievance, arbitrations, administrative hearings and civil actions for discrimination and workers compensation matters, employment discrimination and intentional torts. As an assistant attorney general, her duties included the representation of the Industrial Commission and the Bureau of Workers' Compensation in de novo and mandamus actions in common pleas court and the court of appeals in Ohio.

Ms. Snyder received her Juris Doctor degree (cum laude), her undergraduate degree (cum laude) and her associates degree from the University of Toledo. She is a member of the Ohio State Bar Association, the Toledo Bar Association and the Northwest Ohio Self-Insurers Association.

"For Robison, Curphey & O'Connell, the addition of this superior attorney is very exciting and further strengthens our ability to provide the full array of services our clients expect from us," said Managing Partner James E. Brazeau. "Connie's experience in employment and labor matters as well as workers' compensation law tremendously adds to our capabilities."

For more than a century, Robison, Curphey & O'Connell has been providing clients with comprehensive, innovative legal representation. With a seasoned staff of professionals, the firm is committed to providing service to its clients that exceeds expectations.
