Robison, Curphey & O'Connell Names Attorney Michael Olsaver as Member

Adrian native achieves recognition as latest member of law firm

TOLEDO, OHIO -- Robison, Curphey & O'Connell (RC&O), a law firm based in Toledo with offices in Adrian and Findlay, recently named Michael R. Olsaver as a member of the firm.

"Being named partner is a career goal for most every attorney," Olsaver said. "I can't imagine working with a better firm of attorneys, paralegals and professionals," he said. "Their character and their quality of service is outstanding."

Olsaver, who has been with the firm since July 2000, focuses on real estate transactions, estate planning and corporate and business law. He has represented individuals, businesses and organizations throughout Lenawee County. Olsaver received his undergraduate degree from Michigan State University and his Juris Doctorate degree from DePaul University. He was admitted to the Michigan Bar in 1999.

An Adrian High School alumnus, he serves on the Adrian High School Alumni Board. Olsaver also a member of the Board of Directors of Communities in Schools of Lenawee County and the Adrian Symphony Orchestra. He is the immediate past president of noon Rotary Club of Adrian. Olsaver's professional memberships include the American Bar Association, the Michigan Bar Association and the Lenawee County Bar Association.

He and his wife, Tiffany, live in Adrian with their daughter Rosemary.

For more than a century, Robison, Curphey & O'Connell has been providing clients with comprehensive, innovative legal representation. With a seasoned staff of professionals, the firm is committed to providing service to its clients that exceeds expectations.
