W. David Arnold joins Robison, Curphey & O'Connell

TOLEDO, OHIO -- Robison, Curphey & O'Connell (RC&O), a law firm based in Toledo with offices in Findlay, Waterville and Adrian and Monroe, Michigan, is pleased to announce that W. David Arnold joined the firm as a member.

Mr. Arnold has extensive experience in business and commercial law. He is principal outside counsel to several corporations and limited liability companies, and he advises individuals and entities on a wide range of business and commercial issues. He represents business people and business organizations, including start up and established companies, providing legal and business advice in a wide variety of settings. His particular areas of expertise include commercial matters covered by Article 2 or 9 of the Uniform Commercial Code, contracts, business formation, and insolvency.

Mr. Arnold has been practicing since 1974. He earned his undergraduate and law degrees, both with honors, from the University of Michigan. He is admitted to practice in Ohio and Georgia and in numerous U.S. Courts of Appeal, District Courts, and Bankruptcy Courts. He has written and lectured on legal writing, business and commercial law, federal court practice, and ethics.

"For Robison, Curphey & O'Connell, the addition of this superior attorney is very exciting and further strengthens our ability to provide the full array of services our clients expect from us," said Managing Partner James E. Brazeau. "David's experience in business and commercial matters provides more depth to our already significant capabilities."

For more than a century, Robison, Curphey & O'Connell has been providing clients with comprehensive, innovative legal representation. With a seasoned staff of professionals, the firm is committed to providing service to its clients that exceeds expectations.
