

Press Release

For more information, contact Kerry J. Smith, 517-673-3101

February 22, 2007

For Immediate Release

Paul Croy, Sharon Hendel join Robison, Curphey & O'Connell Attorneys expand RCO's regional scope with offices in Waterville

TOLEDO, OHIO -- Robison, Curphey & O'Connell (RC&O), a law firm based in Toledo with offices in Findlay, Adrian, Michigan, and now Waterville, is pleased to announce that Paul E. Croy and Sharon S. Hendel have joined the firm.

Mr. Croy has extensive experience in the areas of estate planning, business transactions and real estate. He is a frequent lecturer on estate planning and administration for community and professional groups and served as an adjunct instructor at Northwest State Community College for 10 years. Mr. Croy earned his Juris Doctorate degree (with honors) in 1989 from the University of Toledo after previously receiving his undergraduate degree in economics from the University of Toledo in 1986.

Mr. Croy is very involved in community organizations. He currently serves on the Middleton Township Zoning Board and Downtown Waterville, Inc. Board. He is also active with Waterville Rotary, Boy Scout Troup 101, the Waterville and Perrysburg Chambers of Commerce and is a vice president of the Erie Shores Council of the Boy Scouts of America. He formerly served as chairman of the Probate Committee and the Young Lawyers Committee of the Toledo Bar Association.

Ms. Hendel has extensive experience in the areas of estate planning and administration, business transactions, and real estate. She is licensed in both Ohio and Michigan. Ms. Hendel is a member of the board of directors of the Toledo Estate Planning Council. Prior to becoming an attorney, she was a math and computer science instructor for the Perrysburg, Bowling Green and Maumee public schools. Ms. Hendel earned her Juris Doctorate degree in 1994 from the University of Toledo and received a Master of Arts in Teaching (Mathematics) in 1972 and her undergraduate degree (with high honors) in 1968 from Bowling Green State University.

Ms. Hendel is active as treasurer of the Perrysburg Kiwanis Club, past treasurer of the Perrysburg Area Chamber of Commerce and past membership chairperson of the Perrysburg League of Women Voters. She is also a former board member of Abundant Life of Perrysburg, Inc. and Sunset Retirement Communities.

“For Robison, Curphey & O'Connell, the addition of these superior attorneys and outstanding community supporters is very exciting and further strengthens our ability to provide the full array of services our clients expect from us,” said Managing Partner James E. Brazeau. “We are also pleased to add another office location to better serve our clients throughout the region.”

For more than a century, Robison, Curphey & O'Connell has been providing clients with comprehensive, innovative legal representation. With a seasoned staff of professionals, the firm is committed to providing service to its clients that exceeds expectations.

-end-

Waterville
204 Farnsworth Road
Waterville, Ohio 43566
4419-878-2931/phone
419-878-4727/fax

Toledo
Four SeaGate, Ninth Floor
Toledo, Ohio 43604
419-249-7900/phone
419-249-7911/fax

Findlay
330 South Main Street
Findlay, Ohio 45840
419-429-7900/phone
419-429-7911/fax

Adrian
123 East Maumee Street
Adrian, Michigan 49221
517-263-8811/phone
517-263-8733/fax