Robison, Curphey & O'Connell Attorneys Selected for Who's Who in Area Law

TOLEDO, OHIO - Robison, Curphey & O'Connell is pleased to announce that James E. Brazeau, Thomas M. George, Michael S. Messenger, Vincent S. Mezinko, Stephen J. Stanford, Craig J. Van Horsten, and Julia Smith Wiley are recipients of the Toledo Business Journal's "Who's Who in Area Law" recognition again in 2012 and Timothy D. Krugh and Mark A. Ozimek were named for the first time this year.

The 2012 Toledo Business Journal's "Who's Who in Area Law" identifies highly capable and distinguished attorneys throughout northwest Ohio, southeastern Michigan, and northeast Indiana. The process was initiated with a call for nominations and votes from area attorneys and clients of area law firms. Both attorneys and clients have a keen awareness of the skills and capabilities of attorneys practicing law in the region. The listing provides a valuable resource tool for area decision-makers in identifying legal counsel.

Robison, Curphey & O'Connell is a regional law firm which provides legal counsel to individuals and businesses ranging from family enterprises to Fortune 500 corporations. The firm's practice areas cover a range of practices including but not limited to Healthcare, Banking & Finance, Real Estate & Construction, Wealth Preservation, Employment & Benefits, and Litigation. With an experienced team of attorneys and professional staff, the firm is committed to serve its clients and exceed their expectations.
